Official returns have been received by the Secretary of the Commonwealth from 59 counties of the vote on the proposition to amend the article of the Constitution of Va., which prohibits any person from holding office under said Constitution who has "held office under the so-called Confederate Government, or under any rebellious State Government or who has been a member of the so-called Confederate Congress or a member of any State Legislature in rebellion against the authority of the U. S., excepting therefrom county officers." From the official returns and the reports received from fourteen other counties, it appears that only 4,772 votes were polled in opposition to the proposed amendment.

The following counties voted unanimously for the amendment:
Amelia, Botetourt, Brunswick, Caroline, Charles City, Culpeper, Essex, Gloucester, Goochland, King George, Lancaster, Luenburg, Mecklenburg, Middlesex, Northampton, Powhatan, Prince Edward, Prince William, Spotsylvania, Warren and Westmoreland.

We are informed that in several counties no vote was taken on the "constitutional amendment."—[Richmond Republic.]

Brigham Young says he has men, muskets, pistols, cannon and ammunition enough, and men to use them, and that he will use them if the Gentiles come to Utah to interfere with polygamy. He denounces the Government, and declares that he will be the Governor of Utah forever.

We have heard of many extraordinary performances of Gov. Brownlow, but the latest feat chronicled of him is that he recently whipped two Confederate soldiers, one of whom, it is said, cursed Mrs. Brownlow because she refused him alms. Fighting is a new role for the Governor; he generally takes it out in talking.

Some time ago Mrs. General Grant lost about five hundred dollars from her pocket, or had it picked of that amount. Within a few days she has received an anonymous letter enclosing one hundred dollars, which the writer says he wrongfully obtained from her. His conscience was compromised on the retention of four hundred dollars.

The latest English papers announce the death of Dr. Richardson the lexicographer at the age of ninety years. Making dictionaries appears to be a healthy business. It was only a few days ago that we announced the death of Dr. Worcester, of Boston, at the age of eighty-one.
Walker, too, lived to a good old age. Dr.
Johnson was seventy-five when he died, and the late Noah Webster died at eighty-five.

A portion of Gen. Hancock's corps has been sent from Hartford, Conn., to Augusta, Maine, most probably to be stationed on the frontier as a check upon Fenian raids into Canada.
The ostensible reason assigned for this movement is that a British officer led a company of marines across the frontier of the United States to arrest deserters, when the marines themselves, finding they were on foreign soil, deserted their officer in turn, and application being made to the authorities to have the men given up, the request was refused.

Gen. John A. Logan, of Illinois, was yesterday appointed Minister to Mexico, and Mr.
William A. Browning, the Private Secretary of the President, was at the same time appointed Secretary of Legation to the same Republic. Colonel Robert Johnson succeeds Mr. Browning as Private Secretary to the President.

St. George's Episcopal Church, New York, of which the Rev. Dr. Tyng is pastor, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The loss is estimated at three hundred thousand dollars. The Church was insured for seventy thousand dollars.

Orders have been received to prepare the iron-clad Passaconaway now lying on the stocks at Portsmouth, for sea, as soon as possible. Also, that the steamers Minnesota, Maratanza, and Galena, are to be fitted out for sea immediately.

Preston King, Collector of the port of New York, committed suicide on Monday last by jumping overboard from a Hoboken ferry boat, while laboring under temporary insanity. His health had been for some time failing.

It is said that Gen. Sickles is to have Command in the "Department of South Carolina."
